

Celebrate Recovery Purpose

The purpose of Celebrate Recovery is to fellowship and celebrate God's healing power in our lives through the 12 steps and 8 Recovery Principles.

This experience allows us to "be changed."

We open the door by sharing our experiences, strength and hopes with one another. In addition, we become willing to accept God's grace in solving our lives' problems.

By working and applying these Biblical principles, we begin to grow spiritually. We become free from our addictive, compulsive, and dysfunctional behaviors. This freedom creates peace, serenity, joy, and most importantly, a stronger personal relationship with God and others.

As we progress through the program, we discover our personal, loving and forgiving Higher Power - Jesus Christ.

We invite you to join us each Sunday evening where you can connect with God, family and others, and develop a support network of friends and accountability and learn to walk in freedom and healing in Christ.

Welcome to an Amazing Spiritual Adventure!

Small Group Guidelines

1. Keep your sharing focused on your own thoughts and feelings. Please limit your sharing to 3-5 minutes.
2. There will be no cross talk. Cross talk is when two individuals engage in a dialogue, excluding all others. Each person is free to express their feelings without interruption.
3. We are here to support one another. We will not attempt "to fix" one another.
4. Anonymity and confidentiality are basic requirements. What is shared in the group, stays in the group!
5. Offensive language has no place in a Christ centered recovery group. This includes graphic descriptions.

Prayer For Serenity

God, grant me the serenity to accept the things I cannot change, the courage to change the things I can, and the wisdom to know the difference. Living one day at a time, enjoying one moment at a time; accepting hardship as a pathway to peace; taking, as Jesus did, this sinful world as it is, not as I would have it; trusting that You will make all things right if I surrender to Your will, so that I may be reasonably happy in this life and supremely happy with you forever in the next. Amen.

Recovery Groups

We currently offer men's and women's small groups for sharing life issues and support.

In these breakout group times, it is a place to have the freedom to be yourself, and not to be judged, regarding any of your hurts, habits, or hang-ups. I.e. Stress; Depression; Alcohol/Drug dependency; Eating disorders/Food addiction; Physical/Emotional/Sexual abuse; Anger; Fear; Pride; Codependence; Self esteem; Financial; Relationships; and other life issues.

Dinner is served from 5-6pm. Cost of dinner
$3.00 per Adult $1.00 per child

Afterwards we end our evening where you can enjoy coffee and dessert, and a time to connect with others in an informal and relaxed setting.

The Road to Recovery

Eight Recovery Principles based on the BEATTITUDES

By Rick Warren

Realize I'm not God; I admit that I am powerless to control my tendency to do the wrong thing and my life is unmanageable.

*"Happy are those who know they are spiritually poor."
Matthew 5:3*

Earnestly believe that God exists, that I matter to Him, and that He has the power to help me recover.

"Happy are those who mourn, for they shall be comforted." Matthew 5:4

Consciously choose to commit all my life and will to Christ's care and control.

"Happy are the meek." Matthew 5:5

Openly examine and confess my faults to God, to myself and to another person whom I trust.

"Happy are the pure in heart." Matthew 5:8

Voluntarily submit to any and all changes God wants to make in my life.

"Happy are those whose greatest desire is to do what God requires." Matthew 5:6

Evaluate all my relationships; offer forgiveness to those who have hurt me and make amends for harm I've done to others when possible, without expecting any reward.

"Happy are the merciful." Matthew 5:7

"Happy are the peacemakers." Matthew 5:9

Reserve a daily time with God for self-examination, Bible reading, and prayer in order to know God and His work for my life and gain the power to do it.

Yield myself to be used by God to bring this good news to others, both by me example and by my words.

"Happy are those who are persecuted because they do what God requires." Matthew 5:10
